Footnotes:

- ^{1/} The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.
- ^{2/} File this report if contributions totaling $10,000 or more are made to state officeholders or committees primarily formed to support or oppose state officeholders during the corresponding period.
- ^{3/} In addition to paper reports, a committee must file electronically if, beginning January 1, 2000, the committee receives contributions or makes expenditures totaling $50,000 or more. For more information, visit the Secretary of State's web site at www.ss.ca.gov.
- ^{4/} Committees required to file electronically must file an online report each time they make contributions or independent expenditures totaling $5,000 or more to support or oppose the qualification or passage of a single state ballot measure. The report is required within 10 business days of making the payment. For independent expenditures made within 90 days before a state election, the report is required within 24 hours. Consult the election filing schedule once a measure has qualified for the ballot.

Additional Notes:

- Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- Contribution limits are in effect for state candidates and certain state committees. Refer to the contribution limits chart on the FPPC website. Contact local jurisdictions for information on local restrictions, if any.
- A supplemental preelection statement may be required if contributions totaling $10,000 or more are made in connection with a local election held in 2007. In addition, late independent expenditure or late contribution reports are required if independent expenditures or contributions totaling $1,000 or more are made during the 16-day period prior to an election held in 2007. If a state election is held in 2007 refer to that election filing schedule.
